WEST VIRGINIA-CONDITION OF HER PEO-PLE.-The Wheeling Register presents the following picture of the deplorable condition of the people of the counties in that so called State, that borders on Virginia:

"In some of the Southeastern counties nine tenths of the people are under the Radical ban. They have been insulted, wronged, oppressed and persecuted almost beyond forbearance. They have been deprived of every civil and political right; they are denied even the poor privilege of expressing an opinion distasteful to their Radical and intolerant masters. They are excluded from the courts. either as suitors or attorneys, and the efforts of their Radical neighbors have been continually to oppress and never to protect. About one man in ten in Monroe county is permitted to vote, and that one man is generally the meanest, lowest and most despicable creature in the community. They are under the despotic sway of a Judge who was once a rebel, is now a Radical, and has always been a scoundrel, no matter with what party he professed to act or what disguise he assumed. This man has been vested with the power of appointing the tools he desires for the consummation of his purposes, and elections by the people have been abolished or set aside by his versed in villainy to execute his behests, he enquire of has brought in strangers from other States and appointed them to hold important offices not legally within his gift, and which not even the people themselves could rightfully bestow upon any person who is not a citizen of the State."

DETERIORATION .- During the recent session of the Farmers' Convention in this city, pains were taken to ascertain the opinions of the intelligent and practical men who composed that body, as to the causes and course of life which tend most rapidly to the deterioration in the value of the free negro as a useful laborer. They were, we believe, almost unanimously of the opinion that the desire among the freed men was almost universal to squat upon a few acres of poor land, erect a wretched cabin of logs and mud, buy or steal a pig, a few dung-hill fowls, an old musket and a half dozen dogs of low degree, and live after a semi-barbarous fashion, without regular and honest toil. Whenever, through the weakness, necessities or amiability of the land owners of a county, their lands are thus tenanted, there is an infinite amount of thieving and very great difficulty in obtaining labor. And the farmers from all parts of the State were seriously apprehensive that whenever the "freedmen" are permitted to lead the kind of lives to which we have referred, there will be as complete a destruction of the agricultural interests of the State as there has been in Jamaica. For the Royal Commissioners recently appointed to inquire into the causes of the downfall of the prosperity of Jamaica, and also into the worthlessness of the emancipated slaves, ascribe both misfortunes to this very "squatter system," which our most intelligent Virginia farmers are now viewing with so much apprehension.-Rich. Times.

MANUFACTURING IN THE SOUTH. - The St. Louis Republican, in remarking upon a meeting which is to be held in Tomkinsville, Choctaw county, Alabama, to organize a cotton manufacturing company, "to build on a site where there is abundance of water-power to run at least seven hundred spindles and twenty looms," says: "Let this kind of enterprise go on. The South has cotton lands, cotton and labor .-Why not pocket the profits of cotton manufacture? If New England mill-owners can double their capital in from one to three years, declaring magnificent annual dividends, why should Georgia, Alabama and other Southern States throw away the opportunity to make staple? While waiting for the Radical party to come to its senses, do justice and admit the excluded States to the enjoyment of their Constitutional privileges, the South can well afford, for a time, to dismiss from its mind political affairs, and address itself to the development of its industrial resources. If thereby it establishes but a partial independence of New England manufactures, the compensation will be ample for its temporary exclusion from political privileges. It will open new fields for laborers of the South, new channels for capital, new forms of industry, new sources

AMENDMENTS. - In the recent Woman's Rights Convention at Albany, Mr. Pillsbury offered the following:

"Resolved, That the introduction of the word "male," three times repeated in the constitutional amendment, now pending before the States, is a gross insult to all womankind everywhere, and an outrage on the genius of the nineteenth century; and on that ground alone, were there no other reason, we earnestly hope those amendments will be repudiated.' This resolution was adopted with great applause.
